700 Croats Slain in Reprisal for Death of Gestapo Official

Nazi Guards in Zagreb Run Amuck; Lidice Is Awarded War Cross

London, July 14—(AP)—A Yugoslav government spokesman declared today 700 Croats had been killed in reprisals by the German Gestapo following assassinations of the Gestapo chief of Zagreb.
The spokesman said the Gestapo chief was a Major Helm and that he was killed by a hand grenade thrown into his car as he rode along the main street of Zagreb.
He declined to give the source of his information and said he could not state exactly when the killings occurred.
"The Gestapo guards ran amuck after the bombing," the Yugoslav spokesman said, "shooting at everyone moving on the street and hurling hand grenades through nearby windows. During the day the Germans rounded up almost all persons in the immediate neighborhood and shot them."

LIDICE HONORED

London, July 14—(AP)—President Eduard Benes of the Czech provisional government awarded the Czechoslovak war cross today to Lidice, the village wiped out by the Germans June 10 on the ground that the population harbored the assassins of Reinhard Heydrich.
Czech officials estimated that between 350 and 400 men were slain in the community of 1,200 persons, the women placed in concentration camps and the children sent to institutions.
"The population of Lidice have been faithful unto death to our nation and state and have been victims of a barbarous foe who tried to destroy the soul and life of our nation," Benes said.
"In the eyes of the entire world Lidice is a symbol of the Czech"

First Jap Prisoners of War Now Interned at Camp Livingston

Camp Livingston, La., July 14.—(AP)—"Thank you," wrote the Japanese war prisoner in English, "very good every day."
First Japanese to arrive at the army's internment camp here, he added and smiled as Lt. Col. John Dunn, commanding officer, told reporters of the Alexandria (La.) town talk that he was studying English, after being brought here from Pearl Harbor where he was taken from a pint-sized submarine.
Questions and answers were written, and some he declined to answer.
The prisoner wrote that he was captured at Pearl Harbor. Commotions in the sub, possibly two, resulted in the attack. He said he had no complaint as to treatment. Others also expressed satisfaction. Except for broad grins, most of them paid little heed to the two reporters as they prepared to eat rice, ham, potatoes, fresh beans and dessert of ox-heart cherries. Attendants said they requested rice three times daily, fish often.

The War Today!

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

This is France's Bastille day—an anniversary which in happier times before the bloody hand of Hitlerism struck the nation down, was celebrated like our Fourth of July in commemoration of the birth of independence.

On this day 153 years ago the Revolutionists stormed and pulled down the Bastille prison which for centuries had stood as the monument of injustice and torture, and the destruction of this ancient chamber of horrors became the symbol of La Belle France's liberation from oppression. So Bastille day was made the annual occasion of thanksgiving for the blessing of liberty, equality and fraternity.

Before the coming of the Nazi beast all France, from the shining metropolis of Paris to the tiniest hamlet, was bravely decorated with the tri-colors, and the population turned out en masse in Sunday best to worship at the shrine of liberty. There were grand parades, and joyous feasting, and when evening came young and old joined in dancing through the streets until dawn chased them home.

Paris, always gay and full of laughter, was at her best. The great parade was a spectacle which drew visitors from many countries. Always the streets were jammed with hundreds of thousands of eager spectators as the troops in their field-blue uniforms swung by, on the way to the Arc de Triomphe where burned the Eternal Fire to the Unknown Soldier. And no foreigner ever could forget the light of pride which shone from French

Love Letter

Hawthorne, Calif., July 14.—(AP)—Girl, Friend Helen Self, Northrop aircraft worker, hadn't heard from Boy Friend Gunnar Michaelson in months.
He was with the Royal Norwegian Air Force in Iceland, and when mechanics called Helen to see the wing of a plane just received from Iceland for repairs, she scurried breathlessly to the scene.
"To My Dearest Helen," was scrawled on the wing—and the love letter went on quite satisfactorily from there.

Young Mother Wins Court Ruling But Loses Courtroom Tug-of-War Monday

Chicago, July 14.—(AP)—A young mother won a court ruling but lost a courtroom tug-of-war yesterday to her 5-year-old son's foster mother.
Amid the confusion created by the women's struggling and shouting and the child's cries, the foster mother, Mrs. Florence Ware, 32, snatched up blond Bobby Ware and fled from the courthouse.
Enforcing an order of a court in Dalton, Ga., Judge Rudolph Desort had ordered Mrs. Ware and the boy's father, George, to give Bobby to his mother, Mrs. Eula Ware Dockery, 24, of Chattanooga, Tenn., until Sept. 3. Mrs. Dockery formerly was married to Ware.
"She shan't have him!" the foster mother shouted. "I won't give him up!"
She reached for the boy and so

Nazi Juggernaut Gains Momentum

Submarines Invade St. Lawrence Gulf; Sink Three Vessels

Total of Sinkings in Western Atlantic is Raised to 369

(By The Associated Press)
Brazenly penetrating the Gulf of St. Lawrence for the second time in two months, one or more enemy submarines have sent three more merchantmen to the bottom in those waters.

Four seamen were killed, four missing and 99 rescued in the attacks on July 5, Canadian Navy Minister Angus MacDonald announced yesterday. With five other newly reported sinkings, they brought to 369 the unofficial Associated Press tabulation of allied and neutral ship losses in the western Atlantic area since Dec. 7. In their first foray into the St. Lawrence, the undersea raiders picked off two ships May 13, the Canadian government acknowledged recently.

Four other sinkings were announced yesterday by the U. S. Navy, while a fifth, a United States vessel, was reported in Havana, by the Cuban navy general staff, which said the craft was torpedoed and sunk off the northern coast of Cuba Sunday.

90 Miles Off Coast
Torpedoes spelled the doom of one of the four U. S. Navy-announced victims only 90 miles off the Atlantic coast July 8, but two nearby pleasure craft picked up all but one of the 42 men aboard.
The lone casualty was Capt. Patrick S. Mahoney, 56, of Staten Island, N. Y., who went down with his ship when caught in the davits as he attempted to lower a lifeboat for his crew.

"We attempted to beach the ship after the first torpedo hit," said Chester Reynolds, Second Mate from Greenville, Ill., "but about 20 minutes later the second one found its mark and we were ordered to the lifeboats."
The submarine surfaced about 10 minutes after the second torpedo and fired between 10 and 12 shells at the ship. They were damned good gunners," Reynolds said.

A small Norwegian ship attacked in the Gulf of Mexico July 6, and two small Panamanian vessels, one hit nearly five months ago off the northern coast of South America and the other in the Caribbean May 23, were the other three craft lost.

PATROL BOAT AGROUND

San Francisco, July 14—(AP)—A U. S. naval patrol boat ran aground near Seal Rocks near the entrance to the Golden Gate early today and "all hands were rescued," a Navy spokesman said.

First reports of the vessel grounding just outside the Golden Gate leading into San Francisco Bay were received at naval headquarters shortly after 2:30 a. m. (4:30 a. m. CWT), a Navy press relations officer said.

Formidable rocks line the shore side of a narrow navigational channel and make the scene of the mishap a notorious danger area. The site is a short distance from the spot where the freighter Ohioan crashed ashore in a dense fog, Oct. 7, 1936.

The boat, manned by 3 officers and 10 men, drifting helplessly toward the rocky shore, came out of the darkness with machine guns blazing and rockets flaring in an attempt to attract attention.
The rattle of guns and flashing of flares led many residents of the beach area to jump to the conclusion that a Jap landing party was attempting to storm the entrance to the Golden Gate.
The men were under the command of Ensign W. B. Sims, Moberly, Mo. They were treated for submersion and exposure, but no one was injured seriously, the

All Et Up

Moberly, Mo., July 14—(AP)—A 32-mile round trip for sugar? And how much home-canning did they do last year?
The problems were too much for Myra Rihard, 71, and her 82-year-old brother. Wrote Sister Myra to the rationing board:
"We have no car, no 'hoss and buggy'. My brother says 'Dammit, I quit whisky, I quit smoking and I can quit sugar!'"
P. S.—I couldn't answer all the silly questions about how much I canned last year. All I know is it's all 'et up'. So probably it's just as well not to register."

Secretary of Bund Pleads Guilty to U. S. Charges

New York, July 14—(AP)—William Luedtke, 39-year-old national secretary of the German-American Bund, changed his earlier plea of innocent to guilty today to a federal charge of conspiracy to counsel Bundists to refuse to serve in the armed forces and violate the alien registration law.
Luedtke, one of the Bund's top-ranking executives, was indicted with 28 others last week in the government's announced drive to smash the Bund. At his own request, he was brought before Federal Judge Bascom S. Deaver today to change his plea.

In Ship Yard

New York, July 14—(AP)—The New York Post said today in a copyrighted story that Anthony Cramer, described by the FBI as an associate of two of the eight Nazi saboteurs now on trial in Washington, worked in the Brooklyn Navy Yard as a shipwright in ship construction work.
Cramer was one of the 14 men and women arrested yesterday and accused of aiding the Nazis. He now is in custody of the FBI.
The Post said that it had learned from letters of Cramer that the "43-year-old Bundsman had access to such closely-guarded war secrets as the movement of American and British warships to and from the Navy Yard and, with scant trouble, could have informed himself of damage to our warcraft through enemy action."

tered innocent pleas previously. They are scheduled to go on trial July 28.

As a result of his plea, Luedtke faces a maximum of seven years' imprisonment and fines totaling $20,000 as well as denaturalization. He is a naturalized citizen, born in Danzig. His home was listed as Saddle River township, N. J., where he is a baker.

Sentencing was adjourned until after the trial of the others. The defendant also was secretary of the German-American Business League, a member of the Friends of New Germany and Ordnung Dienst or order division, federal authorities said.

SABOTEURS' TRIAL

Washington, July 14—(AP)—The military commission sitting in life or death judgment of eight accused Nazi saboteurs reported today at its noon recess that most of the morning had been spent in the reading of documents.

The documents were not identified and the commission gave no other information beyond saying that it would sit in the afternoon "without regard to hours."

There was the usual parade of counsel for the prosecution and defense into the walled up corridor on the fifth floor of the Justice building. An unidentified man believed to have appeared before the commission yesterday was seen in the hallway outside the barred area again today.

Lenox Named to Head Series G Bond Sales

General Chairman Oliver L. Gehant of West Brooklyn, heading the sale of war bonds in Lee county, today announced the appointment of Clyde H. Lenox of this city to select a committee to head the sale of series G bonds in Lee county. He will cooperate with L. G. Cannon, chairman of the Dixon-Palmyra townships committee.

The county quota for July has been set at $197,200. Gehant announced, and this amount will require renewed vigor upon the part of purchasers in order that the fine record in Lee county may be maintained. The quota for the month of June was $111,000. The total sales of U. S. War bonds in Lee county, excepting sales at the Amboy post office for the month of June, was $190,305.00.

The local boards were instructed by orders sent out last night to fill their quotas in this order:

Four Persons Die in Gasoline Blast

Waynesville, N. C., July 14.—(AP)—A thunderous explosion early today at the distributing plant of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey killed at least four persons and hospitalized eight others. The condition of the injured was described as serious.

The plant and two nearby houses were destroyed and three other houses were damaged.

The detonation was heard for miles around and giant tongues of flame licked at the sky in a brilliant pyrotechnic display.
J. L. Stringfield, chief of police in this little mountain town, said the explosion occurred at 3:30 a. m. while a large gasoline transport was unloading. He said that indications were that a leak in the hose touched off the blast, igniting some 40,000 gallons of gasoline.

Mrs. Andrew Colwell and her two children were burned to death in their home adjacent to the plant, and an unidentified oil transport truck driver was missing.

Supply Fresh Meat for Army Camps in St. Louis Area Threatened Today

National Stockyards, Ill., July 14—(AP)—An embargo on shipments to the market because of a strike of 350 members of the AFL handlers' union now in its second day may endanger the supply of fresh meat sent daily to Army posts in this area.

As union leaders conferred in the federal building in St. Louis with officials of the St. Louis National Stockyards Company, there was no indication of an amendment settlement.

The stockyards did not open at its regular morning hour. Packers supplying the Army Quartermaster Corps' St. Louis purchasing agent with several carloads of beef and other fresh meats daily obtain most of it from the stockyards markets.

Sacrifice

Wichita, Kan., July 14.—(AP)—Mrs. Mary McCoy is giving her fifth son to the armed forces. Four of his brothers were lost in the first World War.

"It's something that has to be done," she acknowledged. "When I think of the thousands of people that Hitler has killed, I know that we are going to have to make sacrifices, perhaps even greater than the last war."

"I am willing to give another son if it will stop Hitler."

William J. McCoy, 41, leaves Wednesday for Fort Leavenworth.

Hitler's Invaders Move Toward Rich Russian Territory

Day's Developments in Other War Zones of Lesser Importance

By CLYDE A. FARNSWORTH
Associated Press War Editor
Adolf Hitler's invasion juggernaut appeared to be slowly gaining momentum today in the drive toward Russia's industrial belt along the lower Volga and her oil fields in the Caucasus.

It seemed more than ever that only a great diversion afloat or at the rear, or sheer German exhaustion in the task of beating down the resistance of the Red army could curb or halt Hitler's all-out effort.

By comparison with the threatening disaster in the battle of Russia, outstanding developments in other war zones, such as the repulse of another eastward lunge by axis forces in Egypt and an overnight RAF raid in the customary strong fashion on industrial objectives in Germany's Ruhr valley, verged on the inconsequential.

The Russians, once successful in winter counteroffensives that rectified the vast battlefield to their advantage, seemed unable to seize the initiative save in isolated sectors, as illustrated by today's Moscow reports that the Germans had been put on the defensive in a sector of the Kalinin front, northwest of Moscow, while the Germans ploughed toward the Volga and the Caucasus on the south.

"Vertical Envelopment"
Russian reports said that a German attempt at "vertical envelopment" of Russian positions northwest of Moscow with air-borne troops had been liquidated, with many of them shot down before landing and the remainder wiped out around.

Despite this it was conceded that the Germans, with numerical superiority in the German-chosen zones for offensive action, had gained ground both near Rzhev, which lies southwest of Kalinin and 130 miles from Moscow, and in their drives across the Don basin against the lower Volga and the upper Caucasus.

Russian reports had little optimism and left scant territorial claims for the Germans to make which had not already been conceded.

The Hitler command announced that the trans-Don offensive had been extended with gains further to the south and encirclement of a body of Russian troops northwest of Voronezh. The Russians admitted the enemy had broken through at Voronezh, on the upper Don, 300 miles south of Moscow.

Axis reports via Stockholm said the German thrust toward Stalingrad, industrial center at an elbow of the lower Volga, had carried from Boguchar, southeast along the Don through Kazansk to the outskirts of Minsk. The Russian communiqué spoke of fighting south of Boguchar, admitting an extension of the penetration there.

Minsk is about 160 miles northwest of Stalingrad. The fight in this sector represents the deepest penetration of Russia since the invasion started June 22, 1941.

In the battle of Egypt, where air war already had reached a superlative pitch for the desert struggle, fiercer air activity was officially reported, coinciding with the repulse of axis tank and motorized infantry assaults on the north and a clash of maneuvering columns on the southern sector of the British Eighth Army's line west of El Alamein.

Despite clouds of sand borne on scorching desert winds allied armies attacked axis vehicle concentrations and a land ground in the El Daba region just behind the El Alamein front, which is only about 70 miles from Alexandria, main base of the British Mediterranean fleet.

"All attacks were successful, some tanks being destroyed, and at least six enemy aircraft were shot down in addition to others destroyed on the ground," said the Cairo communiqué, covering the last 24 hours of fighting.

Predicts Government Will Force Savings

Washington, July 14.—(AP)—Chairman George (D-Ga.) of the senate finance committee predicted today that congress would act to force people to save a part of their earnings as an aid in controlling inflation.
George told reporters he believed congress would have to direct enforced savings by regular percentage deductions from pay checks and other income if it hoped to prevent runaway increases in prices.

Of Interest to Farmers

Ort Acres Finely Developed

Former Employee in Dixon Shoe Factory
Develops Fine Farm

Farm in Palmyra Twp.
Constitutes Three Distinct Units

Charles Ortgiesen, prominent shoe manufacturer of Milwaukee, Wis., and former Dixon resident, who at one time was employed as a cutter in the local shoe factory several years ago, is likewise a successful farmer. His success as a shoe manufacturer, which now ranks him among the foremost in the country with several modern plants in Milwaukee, where he resides, has not led him to forget his native clime.

Not to be considered a plaything, but strictly as a well organized and carefully handled business transaction, which has meant his success in the shoe manufacturing world, Mr. Ortgiesen now operates three fine farms in Palmyra township, Lee county, which are known as Ort Acres.

It is interesting to note the gradual development of the farm Ort Acres and the manner in which it has been created into a concise working unit. This farm is an ideal example of the proper way for a non-resident owner to develop a farm. Although a large acreage, it is divided into three distinct units which at any time may be separated and either sold or rented to distinct advantage.

Mr. Ortgiesen, through his farm manager, Bob Ely, has developed the operation from a dairy farm of 273 acres to a departmentalized farm of 763 acres with a large dairy division, hog division, and fat cattle division. Cost records on each of these units are carefully kept and show good results.

Up to this year everything grown on the farm has been fed on the farm as well as additional thousands of bushels of corn and many tons of hay that have been bought from other farmers.

Mr. Ortgiesen, in an effort to cooperate with the government in every way possible this year, not only stayed with the Government Agricultural Conservation program, but agreed to plant 120 acres of soybeans and 60 acres of sweet corn, in spite of the difficulties of harvesting the latter.

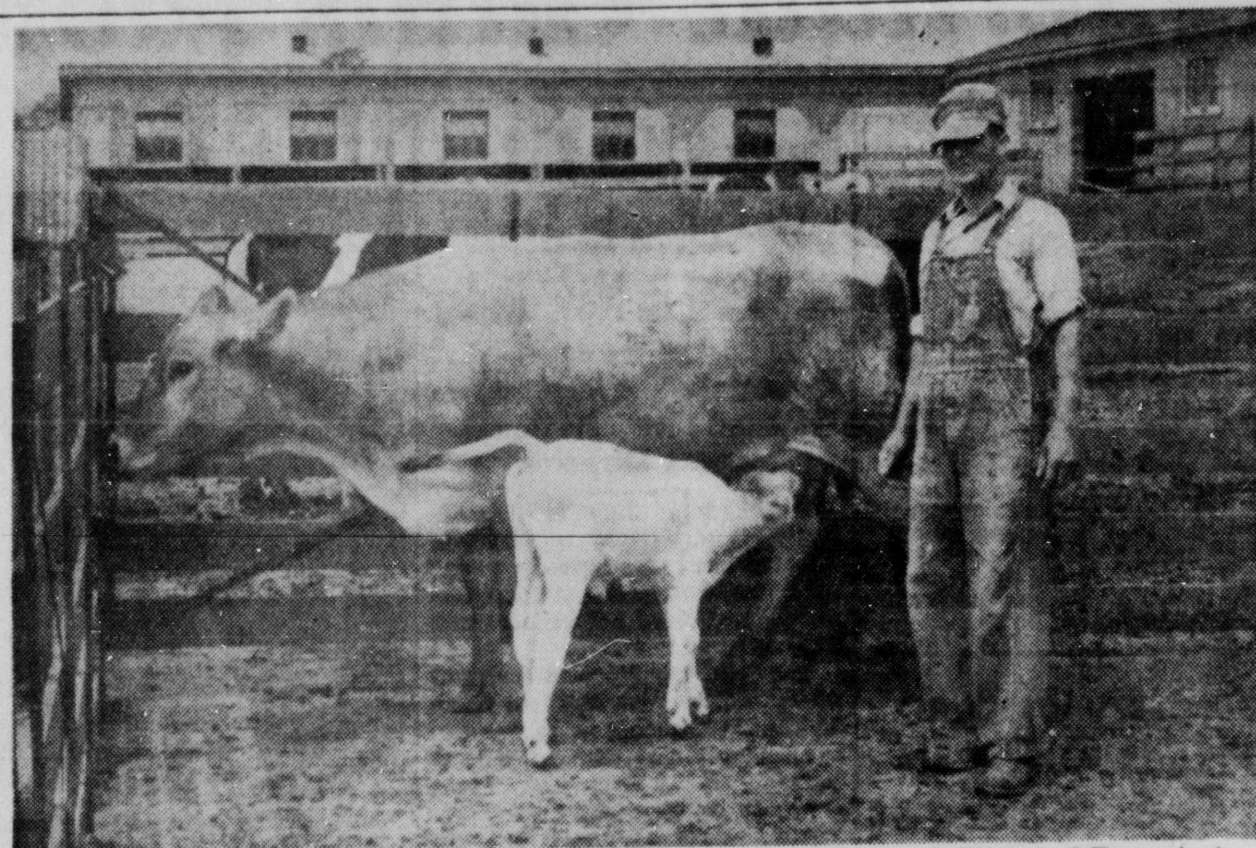

A great deal of credit for the smooth operation of the farm is due largely to the desire of each employee to please Mr. Ortgiesen, and to cooperate among themselves to accomplish the tremendous amount of work that must be done.

The story of the dairy herd is an outstanding example on the part of Mr. Ortgiesen to experiment for the good of the industry and in behalf of the average farmer. He is very proud of the results of his first experiment in artificial breeding, as the first two calves born from artificially inseminated cows arrived last month—one a bull calf and one a purebred Brown Swiss heifer. These two calves are exceptionally nice looking and type.

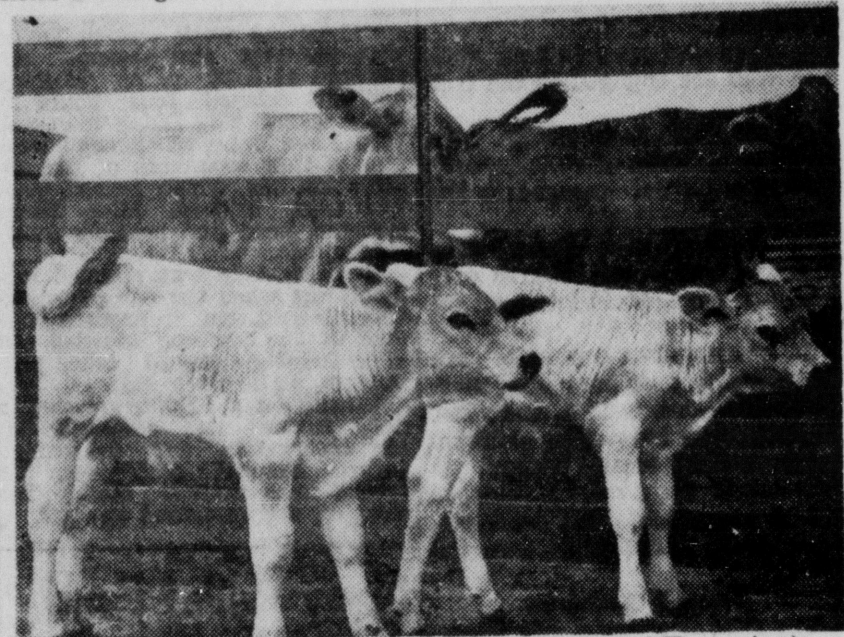

Another outstanding example of his forward thinking on dairy herd improvement work is his recent decision to vaccinate all calves from 4-8 months of age for Bangs disease. This work has already been started.

Although there are some Holstein cows and grade Brown Swiss cows in the herd, there are now 16 purebred Brown Swiss cows in the milking herd and 9 purebred heifers. It is interesting to note that out of the 21 heifers to come fresh this year, 13 produced better than 40 pounds of butterfat in 30 days in the first lactation period. Of these, two produced more than 60 pounds of butterfat in 30 days during the first lactation period. Oren Minnis, the dairy herdsman on the farm, deserves a great deal of credit for the successful operation of the dairy herd due to his desire to learn dairying and follow instructions with regard to feeding and sanitation. The milk production increased from 23,513 pounds in May, 1941, to 48,861 pounds in May, 1942.

Another division of great interest is the hog department. This has been supervised largely by Noble Thompson who has been very conscientious and very careful in following feeding instructions. There were 200 fall pigs. This spring there were 468 pigs. At the present time there are 90 head of sows bred for summer and fall farrowing. A careful feeding program has been followed. On this farm the feeding of the little pigs is started before the sows are bred by the careful handling and feeding of the sows. All feeding is done by self-feeders except for the first seven days after farrowing. The little pigs are castrated on the 10th day, vaccinated for erysipelas from 2-6 weeks of age and for cholera from 6-8 weeks. They are weaned at 8 weeks and wormed at 10 weeks. Sanitation is carefully followed. The practice of using lime to keep floors and ground sweet and sanitary has been adopted. Colony houses are used to raise the little pigs and hog lots holding two sows each are plowed and sowed to rye and clover each year.

Another of the interesting operations carried on at Ort Acres is the fattening of steers. Last fall 200 steers, averaging 685 pounds each, were placed on the farm. A definite program for feeding these steers was fixed at the time they were put on the feeding floor and changed very little during the course of the year. 490 tons of silage were used in fattening these steers. They average about 1200 pounds apiece at the present time.

Following the steers there are usually 100-200 hogs that are being fattened for market. Paul Kesselring is largely responsible for the even and careful feeding of the steers, a job which he has done very well.

General farm work is usually accomplished by the cooperation of all the employees of the farm and has been largely supervised by Oscar Mount.

Lee Co. Farmer Sells at Chi. Stock Yards

Chicago, July 14.—Ed Lott, a Lee county stockman, was represented on the Tuesday market at the Chicago Stock Yards during the past week by a load of mixed cattle of his own feeding that were among the good sellers of the day for stock of their class.

The drove consisted of both steers and heifers, all of which were yearlings. The steers brought $13.35 per cwt. and the heifers $12.00 per cwt.

The Chicago hog market moved upward on Thursday to an extreme top of $14.85 per cwt., up 10 cents over the midweek top, when extremely heavy runs broke the new 16 year high mark, set last Monday, when hogs brought $15.00 per cwt., which equaled the highest price paid since October, 1920.

Roundworm May Infect Calves

Three ways Illinois dairymen can reduce roundworm infestation of their calves and heifers are by treating with phenothiazine, supplying plenty of milk and providing clean pasture.

Animal pathologists of the University of Illinois College of Agriculture, in making these recommendations, explain that various types of stomach and intestinal roundworms common in Illinois are responsible for much unthriftiness of young dairy stock. Severely infested calves are stunted, underweight, often are anemic and have diarrhea and rough hair coats. For the most part, severe cases are among youngest stock—those between 4 and 13 months of age.

Because worms develop better and live longer on a moist pasture than on a dry one, well-drained pastures are usually safer. Where possible, it is well to practice rotational grazing so the young stock can be turned into clean, fresh pasture which hasn't been grazed by other cattle for several seasons. It's also a good idea to group cattle according to age, so young calves do not graze over ground contaminated by older calves and yearlings.

Tests show that generous feeding of milk and other supplements reduces exposure to roundworm because well-fed calves graze less. Also, milk in the diet retards the development of the twisted stomach worm, one of the most important internal parasites.

Since animals in a rundown condition may react unfavorably to phenothiazine, the pathologists advise that treatment be under the supervision of a veterinarian.

WORTHY GRAND MATRON IN OFFICIAL VISIT TO DOROTHY CHAPTER; 250 ARE PRESENT

Mrs. Rebecca Parker of East St. Louis, Ill., worthy grand matron of the Order of Eastern Star, made her official visit to Dorothy chapter last evening, and approximately 250 members of the order, representing more than a dozen Rock river valley chapters, turned out to honor the distinguished guest at Brinton Memorial Masonic temple. An 8 o'clock initiatory ritual was preceded by a dinner at 6:30, with 125 guests attending.

Pink, rose and silver appointments, the worthy grand matron's chosen colors, decorated the table at dinner and the lodge room. Pink and silver crepe paper, laced in Vs, silver bowls of rose and pink roses, and pink and silver tapers in crystal holders trimmed the dinner tables, that were arranged in the shape of a huge star. Nutcups marking the covers were in the same motif.

Mrs. Myrtle Bishop played piano selections during the dinner.

E. E. Barrowman, worthy patron of the hostess chapter, escorted Mrs. Parker in the grand march to the dining room, and they were followed by Mrs. Barrowman, worthy matron of Dorothy chapter, and Arthur L. Johnson of Rockford, associate grand patron. Mrs. Parker was dressed in aqua lace, and was carrying a bouquet of Dream roses tied with pink and silver that was a gift from the local chapter. Mrs. Barrowman was wearing light blue sheer, and carried pink carnations.

Mrs. Josie Schindler of Hillsboro, grand marshal, wearing blue lace, walked with Mrs. Florence Townsend of Chicago, grand organist, whose gown was of pink and rose print on a white background. Mrs. Mary Herman of East St. Louis, grand Adah, in white lace, with Mrs. Vera Anderson of Chicago, grand Ruth, who chose white chiffon; Mrs. Elsa Stevens of Chicago, grand Esther, in a gown of rose and white printed jersey, with Mrs. Bessie Henley of Granite City, grand Martha, attired in a multi-colored pastel print; and Mrs. Rita Johnson of Chicago, grand sentinel, who was dressed in white crepe. Paul Kleiner of Chicago, worthy grand patron, was unable to be present.

Two Candidates
Gold pins of the order were presented to Mrs. Sylvia Bush and Harold Phillips, during the initiatory ritual in the lodge room. More than 15 worthy matrons and worthy patrons from surrounding chapters formed an honorary escort for Mrs. Parker in the west, where she was introduced by Mrs. Alberta Utter, conductress of Dorothy chapter; welcomed by Mrs. Barrowman; and presented with flowers, an honorary membership in the local chapter, and a gift, with Mrs. Eula Wilson, associate matron, speaking in behalf of Dorothy chapter.

Following a solo, "All for You," sung by Leone Ort Mills of Chicago, who was accompanied by Miss Loala Quick, Mrs. Parker was escorted to the east by Mrs. Utter, and Miss Ruth Brown, associate conductress, and accorded the grand honors to which only the worthy grand matron is entitled.

Receives Appointment
While in the east, Mrs. Parker announced the appointment of Mrs. Ruth Emmert of Dorothy chapter, as a member of the special hospital visitation committee of the grand chapter. Other grand chapter members in the local chapter are: Publicity, Mrs. Beulah Tennant; triennial fund and ways and means, Mrs. Carrie Coe. As the grand officers were escorted, each was presented with a wrist bouquet of sweetpeas. Mrs. Mills' solo for the candidates was "I Heard a Forest Praying."

SEWING CLUB
Mrs. John Herron entertained members of the Thread and Thimble club recently at the home of Mrs. John McClanahan on Chicago avenue. Miss Evelyn Kested was an invited guest. Mrs. Robert Gallagher is to entertain at the next meeting, July 20.

Multi-colored garden flowers and floral placecards trimmed the table at a breakfast party given Sunday morning by Mrs. John Gray of Stevens Point, Wis., Miss Anna Jean Crabtree and Miss Barbara Campbell, in courtesy to a July bride, Mrs. Robert Bovey, the former Miss Bettie Haines. The trio entertained at Peter Piper's.

A card table and chairs was the group's gift for the honoree. Attending the breakfast were Mrs. Allen Boyd, Mrs. Lyle Snader, Miss Mary Trombold, Miss Jean Bovey, Miss Leone Kreim, Miss Phyllis Andrews, Miss Jane Smith, Mrs. Bovey, and the hostesses.

COMMERCIAL ARTIST WHO SKETCHED NAVY POSTER IS NEPHEW OF GEORGE DOVEY

A story appearing in these columns last week, regarding Miss Ione Smith (niece of John Harvey of 1713 Third street), who was the commercial model selected to pose for the Navy Relief fund posters distributed here recently, has brought to light the additional information that the young artist who sketched the poster, John Falter, is a nephew of another Dixon man, George F. Dovey of 835 Brinton avenue.

Miss Smith, who formerly resided in Dixon for a short time, has been devoting more and more of her time to wartime projects, and Mr. Falter is serving his country by sketching posters and other needed materials, in addition to illustrations for Cosmopolitan, McCall's, and other magazines.

And by strange coincidence, the two were brought together on the assignment for the Navy Relief society, whose purpose is: "That no widow, no orphaned children, no mother or other member of the Navy man's family shall suffer hardship if it can be prevented."

The artist, now in his early thirties, is a son of the George Falter of Atchison, Kan., and resides in Perkasee, Pa. His mother is a sister of Mr. Dovey, who resided in Danville, before coming to Dixon about three years ago.

Like Miss Smith, Mr. Falter is a talented musician, playing the piano and several other instruments. (Can anyone identify the small boy posing with Miss Smith on the poster—just to make this house-that-Jack-built story complete?)

DIXIE GIRLS

Favorite sports were mentioned during roll call at the fifth meeting of the season for the Dixie Girls 4-H club, held recently at the Garrison school. The program included: "Choosing Undergarments," Charlene Wakeley; reading, Darlene Burket; 4-H songs; an account of their recent visit to a 4-H camp, Betty Hill and Charlene Wakeley; talk and demonstration on nylon hose and other new materials, Miss Marion Symphon, home advisor.

Games and refreshments followed the meeting.

Judy Elifson Is Birthday Hostess

Balloons drifted in the July breeze from the garden archway at the Wallace Elifson home yesterday afternoon, when the Elifsons' little daughter, Judy, entertained a number of playmates in honor of her third birthday anniversary. It was a lawn party that Mrs. Elifson planned for her daughter, with games, a birthday lunch, and favors for everyone.

The guests were seated at small tables for refreshments. Yellow candles decorated Judy's birthday cake, and there were favors of pails, shovels, and balloons.

Those wishing Judy a happy birthday were Marty Santee, Buddy Goralach, C. B. Castle, Gary Reeder, Frances Clausen, Billy Beanblossom, Alan Hall, John Miller, Brant Anderson, mothers of several of the children, and Mrs. C. A. Owen and son Clarke of Rockford, aunt and cousin of the little hostess, who are spending the week with the Elifsons.

WA-TAN-YANS TO HAVE PICNIC

Business and professional women of Wa-Tan-Ye will be entertained with a picnic supper at 6:30 o'clock Thursday evening in Lowell park. Those unable to attend are asked to notify Miss Phyllis Carson, Phone No. 107, or Miss Ethel Crawford, at Y1129, not later than Thursday noon. Members are expected to provide their own table service.

Gomez and Yanks Beat Tigers, 4-3

Indians and White Sox Both Lose Night Games

By JUDSON BAILEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

The American league has just suffered another chill in the region of its pennant race.

The New York Yankees beat down the Detroit Tigers again yesterday 4-3 and the Washington Senators surprisingly shut out the Cleveland Indians 7-0 in a night game.

These results, coming as they did on the heels of the Boston Red Sox' double somersault before the St. Louis Browns Sunday, placed an emphatic damper on whatever rivals were rash enough to think the world champions were collapsing.

All season long Detroit has been the most troublesome of the Yanks' opponents and the Tigers were tough to handle yesterday even though Lefty Gomez held them to four hits and fanned seven while going the route for the second time this year.

Gordon Gets Four
The Yankees themselves were held to six hits, four by Joe Gordon, who drove in two runs with a pair of doubles, and another two-run homer by Red Rolfe, who had returned to the Yankee starting lineup Sunday after a long illness.

The Yanks' victory moved them five full games in front of the idle Red Sox.

The Cleveland Indians, who had won four straight and 11 of their last 14 (excluding a tie), meanwhile suffered a rude jolt at the nation's capital and saw their third place distance from the leaders swell to seven games.

Young Walter Masterson was the No. 1 boy for the Senators, holding Cleveland to three scattered singles while his teammates pelted three pitchers for 10 hits.

Kreevich Smacks Homer
The only other game, also a night session, the Philadelphia Athletics nosed out the Chicago White Sox 4-3 in 11 innings. Phil Marchildon allowed Chicago just eight hits and he started the winning rally in the 11th with a single after two were out. Mike Kreevich, who had hit his first homer of the year in the fifth, then waited out a base on balls from Johnny Humphries and Elmer Valo followed with a run-scoring single.

The only game scheduled in the National league, Philadelphia at Cincinnati, was postponed.

This left most of the attention in the senior circuit centered on Pittsburgh's protest of a game with Brooklyn Sunday when the Dodgers had 26 men in uniform on the bench. However, Leo Durocher of the Dodgers contended that the extra player, pitcher Max Maccon, still was under contract to Brooklyn's Montreal farm in the International league and therefore did not violate the major league player limit.

Back to Brownies

Johnny Berardino, right, gets back his glove and bat from Maj. Frank E. Benedick as he leaves the army air corps to re-enter baseball as an infielder with the St. Louis Browns.

BERARDINO WASHES OUT OF AIR CORPS; BACK TO BROWNS

By BURTON BENJAMIN
NEA Service Staff Correspondent

New York—Washed out of the Army Air Corps after completing four months and 26 days of training, Johnny Berardino is back with the St. Louis Browns—so that he can keep on flying.

He wants to earn enough money to pay for a Civilian Pilot Training course which will give him an instructor's rating and an entree to the Ferry Command.

"If I had the dough," says the former Southern California athlete, "I wouldn't have come back at all. But I need 80 hours of solo and the school charges twenty bucks an hour. That's $1600. So I'm playing baseball to keep flying."

When the Browns are at home, Berardino, 25, plans to commute between a flying school and Sportsman's Park. He is determined to have his hours in by the end of the season.

"I'm not the only ball player who's flying," he points out, "Joe Gordon of the Yankees tells me he has 80 hours in the air. He may be working for the same thing."

Berardino has no compunction about his Army failure. It was not a case of fear or lack of intelligence but simply an inability to fly the Army way.

"They called it 'insufficient progress,'" he explains, with unashamed candor. "That covers a lot of ground. I guess I just reached a certain stage of development and stayed there."

"They check you every 25 hours. If you're not moving right along—goodbye. They may have lowered the entrance requirements but they certainly haven't lowered the graduation standards."

The young infielder, who hit .271 for the Brownies last season and socked across a commendable 89 runs, volunteered for flying service before Pearl Harbor. He was not threatened by the draft at the time. The flying bug bit him—and in he went.

He kissed the wife goodbye in January and reported to the Chandler, Ariz., Air Corps Replacement Center. Five weeks of drill and military courtesies, and he was off for Cal-Aero Flying Academy at Ontario, Calif. He accumulated 80 solo hours before washing out in his upper basic training.

Berardino was at startstop for the Browns last year, but the fine play of rookie Vernon Stephens probably will make him a second baseman again this season. He played this position in the minors and alternated there his first two years with the Browns.

Is he in shape? "Physically, I'm in great shape. My batting eye is dull, and my legs are a little below baseball standards. I didn't play any ball in the Air Corps, but I'll be ready in a couple of weeks."

To reverse the usual question: How does it feel to be OUT of the Army? "I hate to wash out. The life was great, and I'm crazy about flying."

"There's an old Army saying that you've got to be able to fly by the seat of your pants. I don't know just what that means. Something about being sensitive to pressure changes there. I didn't have it."

You can hardly criticize Johnny Berardino for that. He doesn't play baseball that way, either.

Joe Gordon Back at A. League Top

Goes 4 for 4 Yesterday to Replace Williams

New York, July 14.—(AP)—Joseph Lowell Gordon, the flashy second baseman of the New York Yankees, never has batted higher than .284 in his four terms in the American league, but he is not giving up in his quest of the 1942 batting crown.

The Flash has led the hitters in the junior circuit most of the season, but a slump in the last couple of weeks made him surrender the lead for a while.

Yesterday Gordon showed that he still is in the running, however, by banging out two doubles and two singles for a perfect day at the plate against the Detroit Tigers and thus regained the No. 1 spot among the American league hitters with a .347 average.

Pete Reiser of the Brooklyn Dodgers, last year's National league champ, continued to pace the senior circuit with a .356 percentage, comfortably ahead of his teammate Joe Medwick, who sported a .343 mark.

WYLIE, DECATUR BASEBALL CLUB PRESIDENT, DIES

Decatur, Ill., July 14.—(AP)—A two-decade career of service to the Decatur Commies and the Three-Eye league came to an end with the death last night of L. J. (Gene) Wylie, president of the Decatur baseball club.

The 59-year-old executive died in a Springfield hospital, failing to rally from a Sunday night operation which was the second he had undergone in four months.

The Decatur team, an affiliate of the St. Louis Cardinals, "has lost a wheelhorse," declared Branch Rickey, general manager of the Cards, when informed in St. Louis of the death of Wylie.

"I don't believe there was another person more constructive in minor league baseball than Gene," Rickey said.

Wylie, a native of Mt. Pulaski, Ill., was a Decatur lawyer at the time he first became connected officially with baseball in the early 20's. He was elected a vice president of the Decatur Fans Association and in 1922 became head of the Commies.

He was named president of the Three Eye league in 1924 and served in that capacity until the circuit temporarily disbanded in 1932.

Sports Poll

By ORTMAN

Bob Westfall, Bruce Smith and the University of Detroit's giant center, Vincent Banonis, continued as the coaches' favorites as five more midwestern mentors cast their ballots today in the All-Star poll.

Smith appeared on all the ballots while Westfall was omitted on one and Banonis on two. The coaches, joining the Big Ten group that voted yesterday, were Frank Leahy, Notre Dame, Gus Dorais, University of Detroit, Tom Stidham, Marquette, Don Faurot of Missouri and Charles Bachman of Michigan State College.

However, the balloting of these gridiron leaders does not give with the votes received from the fans throughout the country, voting through 200 newspaper and radio stations in 38 states of the union.

In the first three days of balloting, the fans have placed Dick Erdlitz, Northwestern quarterback, at the top of their backfield men with 27,144 votes and Al Blozis, Georgetown tackle, is 10,000 ballots ahead of the number 2 lineman, Alf Bauman of Northwestern.

When the polls have closed at midnight, July 26, a final count will be made and the eleven men receiving the largest number of votes will form the starting lineup against the Chicago Bears, National league champions, in Soldiers Field, Aug. 28.

Besides the starting eleven, there will be approximately 50 other college performers chosen to appear in the game as the coaches see fit. Are Don Miller and Jerry Ankeny going to be a part of this All-Star contingent? Dixon fans and friends will determine the answer to this question.

For your convenience, a ballot has been placed in the upper right hand corner of this page. Merely clip this ballot from the paper, fill in your name and address together with the names of the stars for whom you are voting and mail to the Evening Telegraph. For those who do not want to use this ready-made ballot, the simple process of writing your name and address together with the college performers' names on a plain sheet of paper, may be used. Anyone who is interested in doing a little soliciting may obtain some petitions at the Evening Telegraph office. Twenty-five names, good for 25 votes for Miller-Ankeny, can be included on these petitions.

Lets everyone get behind Miller and Ankeny. Don't wait until the last minute. Cast your votes now; the nearest mail box is the polling place.

Submarines Invade

Navy announced. They were rescued by breeches buoy.

ESCAPES IN SMOKE

An East Coast Port, July 14—(AP)—A medium-sized American merchantman, attacked by a submarine in the Caribbean May 22, laid down a smoke screen, dodged through reef-studded waters and limped safely into port.

Only two men in the crew of 39 were injured when a torpedo struck at 8:05 p. m. One of them, John Flaherty of Orange, N. J., told the story after he was flown here from the Caribbean island where he was treated for a broken foot.

The submarine, never seen, apparently pursued the ship for more than an hour and fired two more torpedoes that went wide of the mark.

Beginning Wednesday and each Wednesday thereafter between the hours of 9 a. m. and 2 p. m., an opportunity will be given to register on the second floor of the city hall at the home registration room. Farmers are invited to cooperate in the movement by calling at the office and making known their help problems. Loyd Knox, farm emplacement representative of the U. S. Employment Service will hear complaints. During other days of the week, Secretary Frances Patrick and Chairman Beamblossom will accept registrations of both farmers and farm laborers. Business men of Dixon have been urged to refer names of qualified farm hands to the above, even though they are available temporarily.

"We started listing to starboard soon after we were hit," Flaherty said. "The Skipper made the First Mate go below and turn the valves to shift the ballast to the port side.

"The Skipper told the Chief Engineer to give her full steam ahead. Then he ordered the engine room crew to turn a lot of oil into the fires so that we had a lot of black smoke for a screen.

"We started zig-zagging. We were only 60 miles from a harbor at the time of the attack."

Henderson Against Restrictive Items in Senate's Bill

Washington, July 14—(AP)—The price control appropriation went before the senate Monday with a warning by Leon Henderson that price fixing limitations sought by farm groups would cripple an important part of the anti-inflation program.

The limitations are contained in a $1,556,000,000 supplemental appropriations bill, for war agencies. The bill includes $120,000,000 tied down by a series of restrictive amendments, to finance a year's operation of the Office of Price Administration which Henderson directs.

Although the $120,000,000 OPA fund allowed by the appropriations committee is an increase of $45,000,000 above the amount previously voted by the house, it is $20,000,000 less than the smallest amount the price administrator had asked. He said the cut would limit OPA operations severely but that this problem could be met.

Henderson's main criticism of the bill was directed against an appropriation committee amendment to prevent the OPA from fixing prices on any commodity made in whole or in part from a farm product unless the price reflected 100 per cent of parity. Parity is a level intended to give crops the purchasing power they enjoyed in a previous period, usually 1909-1914.

Will Require Studies In a statement issued Saturday night Henderson said the farm price restriction would force repeal of the general maximum price regulations because it would require studies on thousands of items of food, clothing and industrial products before ceilings could be set.

Senator Wagner (D-NY) asserted in a broadcast last night that the appropriation for Henderson's office was the most important issue on the home front. "Every grasping landlord, every speculator in war materials and consumers' goods, every producer reaching out for undue profits at the nation's expense is today ganging up on the OPA," Wagner said.

He agreed with the price administrator in condemning another amendment which would prohibit the use of subsidies to hold down the cost of living.

Henderson declared that a third change, requiring senate confirmation of appointments of all OPA employees paid $4,500 a year or more, would inject politics into price control administration.

Bid Spade Grand Slam, Toss Air Corps at Axis

Tampa, Fla., July 14—(AP)—Bid a grand slam in spades and toss the United States air force at your opponents.

Playing cards, imprinted with the silhouettes of the principal aircraft of the United States, Great Britain, Germany and Japan, were distributed today to field units of the third air force to aid in teaching recognition of both friendly and hostile airplanes.

Developed by staff officers, the cards also will be distributed to other military units and made available to civilians.

The spade suit carries the principal combat planes of the United States. British are pictured on the hearts. Nazi planes are on the diamonds and Japs on the clubs.

Conservation of transportation facilities is needed because only 150,000 new trucks will be available this year and next, as compared with 700,000 new trucks put in operation last year. Normally, 420,000 trucks a year are retired from service.

Psychologists now declare that mental and visual perception is much more important in a flyer than co-ordination.

RAF Bombers Strike at Duisburg in Ruhr

London, July 14—(AP)—A strong force of RAF bombers attacked industrial objectives in the Ruhr valley last night in their fourth raid on Germany this month. The air ministry announced today.

The German high command said the British bombed the important industrial city of Duisburg, about 15 miles north Dusseldorf, between the Ruhr and the Rhine. Duisburg has many blast furnaces and metal plants and is an important coal and iron ore center. It has a population of about 275,000.

"Many fires were left burning," a communique said.

Five of the raiding aircraft were reported missing.

The communique did not name the target of the attack, but an informed British source said the bombs were aimed at heavy industries, blast furnaces, an electric power station, a rail junction and a railroad bridge across the Rhine.

Flying conditions were not ideal last night, the British informant said, but he added the loss of five planes was not proportionally large.

Four Killed in Navy Training Plane Crash

Jacksonville, Fla., July 14—(AP)—Two naval flying officers and two aviation cadets were killed yesterday when two training planes collided in mid-air and crashed near here, the Jacksonville naval air station announced today.

3 U. S. Airmen Rescued From Guinea Jungle

Melbourne, Australia, July 14 (AP)—Three United States bomber crewmen have finally reached base from the New Guinea jungle after a futile attempt to fly out of encircling 8,000-foot high mountains in a 1914 model biplane which they patched up with bed sheets and stretcher canvas.

Forced down in the heart of New Guinea by lack of fuel, Capt. John D. Feltham, 29, of Newport, R. I., First Lieut. Hugh Turk, 25, of Piedmont, Ala., and Sergeant O. N. Ferguson of Los Angeles, worked a week to repair their plane without success.

Abandoning it, they slashed their way through the jungle for four days before coming to a deserted trading post where they found the 1914 plane with its propeller smashed and another 1917 model which had been almost burned out.

For a week they worked on the older plane, salvaging a propeller from the 1917 model, replacing with bamboo struts pieces that had been eaten away by white ants, and covering them with two bed sheets and piece of aviation canvas. They had no aviation fuel but they found a cache of automobile gasoline.

In this queer contraption, Feltham started to bring help to the comrades.

He got within 15 feet of the top of the 8,000 foot high mountains, but the plane would do no more. While his precious gasoline dwindled, he tried to find an outlet. Then a strong current dashed him to the ground like a leaf.

With his legs trapped, Feltham had worked five hours to extricate himself before his comrades worked their way to his rescue. With his legs in bamboo splints, Feltham was carried down the mountainside.

Three days later all were rescued by an Australian plane.

Japs Complete Arc in Chekiang Area

Chungking, July 14—(AP)—The Japanese have completed an arc across coastal Chekiang province from Hangchow on the north to Wenchow, on the south, the Chinese high command indicated today, but it said the Chinese in their counter-attack in Kiangsi province directly to the west had pushed the enemy back to the outskirts of Linchwan.

The Chinese communique said the Japanese had reached the environs of Wenchow on Saturday night. (The Japanese announced the port's capture Saturday.)

In Kiangsi, Chinese dispatches said that the Japanese who had fanned out westward from Linchwan now were being pursued back into the city by three converging columns of Chinese. The Japanese force was estimated by a Chinese spokesman last week to number 30,000.

A Japanese attack on Ithwang, which has changed hands twice already, and now is held by the Chinese, was repulsed after a pitched battle lasting 12 days, the Chinese said. The town is 35 miles south of Linchwan.

Canadian Gabriel Serkau has a way of blowing chute trainees into the sky by compressed air jets. It will, he contends, do away with the need for expensive practice towers.

Salem Squadron, CAP, Aided in Flood Work; Praised by Commander

Chicago, July 14—(AP)—James R. Graham, Illinois Wing Commander, Civil Air Patrol, has sent a letter of congratulation to Frank Denman, Jr., Salem squadron commander, after receiving a report of assistance rendered by the squadron in relieving flood conditions in Salem and other southern Illinois communities last week.

The report was contained in the following telegram from a CAP intelligence officer:

"CAP, Group 619—Squadron one, Salem. Organized sandbag squad to protect Salem city reservoir. Secured trucks, sand and sandbags to sand bag city water plant, Patrol city reservoir dam. Assisted in recovery of drowned man. Evacuated flooded areas. Assisted in removing furniture from flooded homes. Daylight flight patrol surveyed flooded areas to look for possible marooned persons and livestock."

Graham also reported that the first Illinois CAP maneuver was held Saturday at Lake Delton, Wis., participated in by 52 planes and 135 persons from five squadrons of group 1, of northeastern Illinois. The members were pilots, observers and guards from Sky Harbor airport, Waukegan, Elmhurst, St. Charles, Elgin and Palwaukee airports.

Embryo Scientists Take Examination for Scholarships
Washington, July 14—(AP)—Joseph Livingstone Ousley, 17, of Freeport, Ill., was one of 40 members of the next generation of scientists to compete in a special examination today for college scholarships totaling $8,400.
The group, 31 boys and eight girls chosen from more than 10,000 high school students in the science clubs of America, arrived yesterday to spend a week inspecting the science centers of Washington.
With written tests already completed and essays on their ideas of "How Science Can Help Win the War" submitted, they appeared before a board of three scientists today to show their aptitude in the study of science. The board consists of Dr. Harold A. Edgerton of Ohio State University, Dr. Harlow Shapley, director of the Harvard University Observatory, and Dr. Stuart Henderson Britt of the National Research Council, Washington.
To Pick Own Fields
Awarded by the Westinghouse Company, Philadelphia, the scholarships ranged from $200 for 11 of the group to $2,400 for two of them. According to Science Service, organizer of the science talent search which discovered the 40 young researchers, the winners will be allowed to pick their own field of study and the college or university they wish to attend.
"There are no strings attached to the awards which the winners receive," Watson Davis, director of Science Service, declared. "These boys and girls can study anything from mathematics to micro-biology as they wish, but I am my observation that most of them will go in for chemistry physics and related sciences in the hope of aiding the war effort."
